1965 AIC SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

Lanny Max Casey, Harding College track standout, is the 1965 winner of the AIC's Scholar-Athlete Award.

Casey, who graduated Magna Cum Laude from Harding in June, posted a cumulative grade point average of 3.838 earning a double major in chemistry and mathematics.

At Harding Casey gained two letters in track and one in cross country.

A resident of Searcy, he has served as a laboratory assistant in chemistry and a research assistant in the physical fitness program. He was elected to membership in Alpha Chi, a national honor scholarship society and served as treasurer of the Arkansas Eta Chapter during his senior year.

Casey has received a National Science Foundation Traineeship in chemistry at Louisiana State University for 1965-66.

Other candidates for the 1965 award were Lee Minor of Hendrix who had a grade point of 3.676 in mathematics and Wilber Lee Chambers of Arkansas A&M who had a grade point of 3.01.
