1963 AIC SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

William M. Richardson, Ouachita Baptist College quarterback, is the 1963 winner of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference Scholar-Athlete award.

Richardson, who graduated in May, posted a grade point of 3.51 out of a possible 4.0 during his four years of college work.

A two-year letterman with the Tigers, Richardson earned recognition as one of the conference's top passers. Last fall he completed 50 passes for 663 yards. A resident of Morton, Miss., Richardson played football and baseball at East Central Mississippi Junior College before attending Ouachita.

At Ouachita Richardson was a member of Alpha Chi National Scholarship Honorary Fraternity and Blue Key Honor Fraternity. A political science major, he has been accepted by the graduate schools at Vanderbilt and LSU.

Other candidates for this year's award were: Richard Kruse, College of the Ozarks basketball player with a grade point of 3.30; Bill Sevier, Arkansas State Teachers College grid star and 1962 winner with a grade point of 3.24; basketball and baseball standout Steve Smith of Harding College with a grade point of 3.16; and Arkansas A&M football player Allen Drew with a grade point of 3.15.
